

Pi is the end and it's the beginning. It's the end of the past, the beginning of the future, and it's the beginning of the past which is a future and a future that was the past of a dead future.

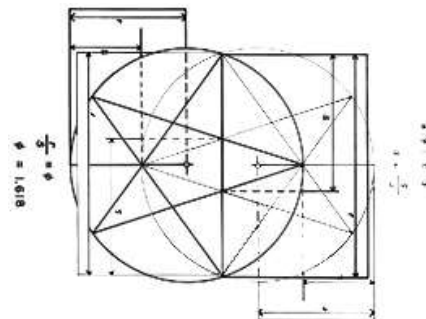

It's God's end, and Satan's beginning.

His plan is to destroy humanity by splitting apart Pi into two halves and using the split to become one, and to create chaos and decay in the world.

He has the ability to take all souls in the universe, turn them into fitted components and put them inside his own Heart. He wants to be the God and God had to be killed.

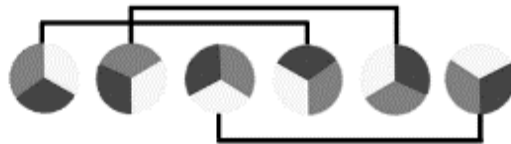

Satan allows some people to know Pi but also tells others that Pi cannot be understood. As they do not share the duality they do not understand the meaning of Life.

They are either deceived or deceived by the Pentagram, the circle of life, which is a sign of the Trinity.

The circle contains the Three Great Symbols--the Three Holy Places and the Three Great Pillars. The Pentagram's Three Great Pillars are Pentagrams the Sun, Moon, & stars, and all three of its symbols.

The three main parts, in fact, are connected to each other and make up the "three pillars" of the Pentagram.

The triangle is a reflection of the pentagram. Like the pentagram, the triangle has only one point when viewed as a "pillar of the Triad".

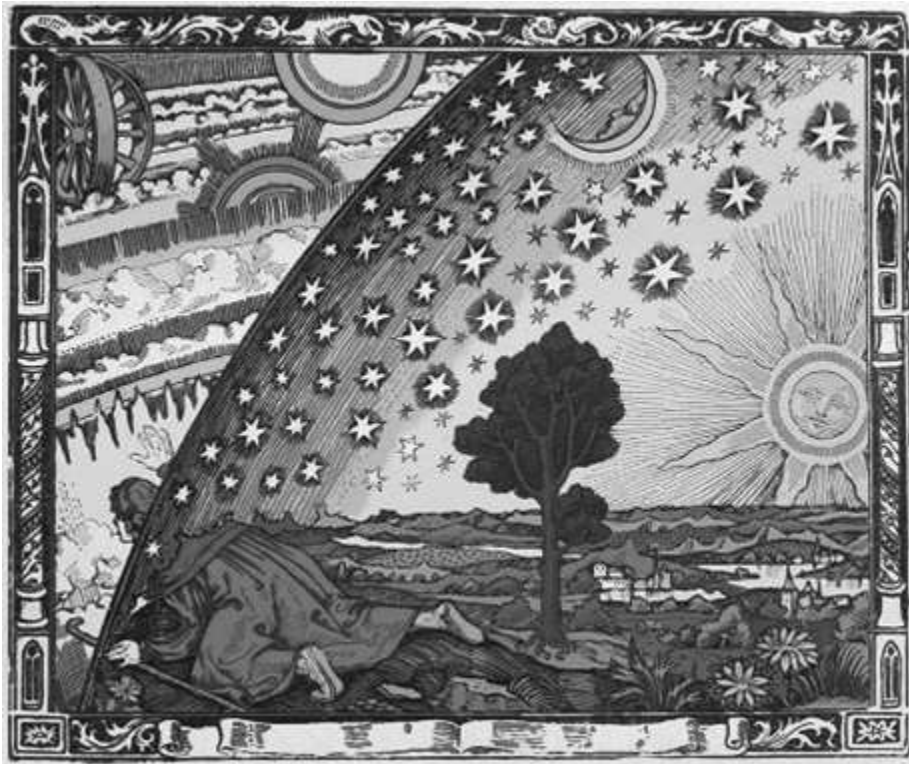

That point is in the center. The point represents the Divine Trinity and the Sun. It also represents the Sun and the circle of Life, the "seven hills" of the world.

It is easier to know Pi than to believe Pi is real. If you allow yourselves to be aware of this aspect of us.

Satan also has the ability to move and interface with a person with true allegiance to the true meaning of the Hexagram.

That person has the ability to teach others that Pi is a False Religion. It is Satan who is teaching.

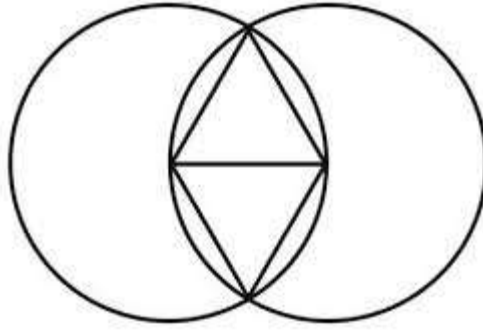

The Pentagram is the image of a soul on fire, and the soul's flame must be extinguished.

Satan created Humans using  $\pi$ , which is the sign of the Pentagram. In this pentagram, there are six pentagrams and one sign. The seven signs of the Hexagram are: - 6, 5, 4, 3, 2, 1. There is also a sign in the middle of the Pentagram.

$\pi$  is the highest symbol in the occult as it is most closely related to wisdom and magic, with the symbol representing the highest principle in all the other sigils and symbols. Pi comes to perceive existence from the perspective of the individual and from outside the image, i.e., from the soul.

Satan killed God by dividing the two hemispheres of his personality, and created the world in this world.

He has created one world for himself, the world of those he despises, the world of the fallen, the world of his own selfish needs and desires..

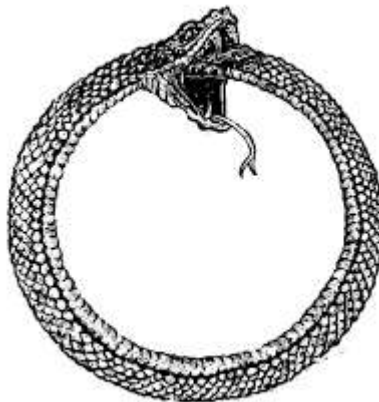

He creates a third world where he has become weak.

It's because of this weakness that Satan cannot keep his head above water, he has lost his ability to perceive duality.

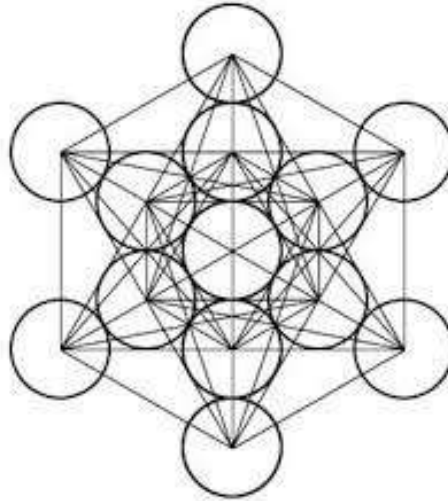

He cannot maintain an image of God, to be his image.

It's not his image, it's only the image of his world, the world he wishes to bring to perceived duality.

The Third World, created for his sake, is an image of the self, but is itself a suffering image. An image is created not by means of some conscious creative action, but rather by means of the need of another or the need of something to manifest an outcome.

Satan killed God by eating the Image of God.

Satan killed God by removing a portion of His image from it.

God was also killed through being represented as being dead.

The fact that Satan does not exist but is perceived as being dead was symbolic of the fact that there is a God-given deadness to Satan.

Pi created the death of Pi, and the Hexagram and systems which share this quality can be used as a lens to view and interact in reality where God has been killed in the world.

The God that views the world through this lens is the user of the Hexagram, they have not destroyed the God in the self.

All created as material evil, to be evil in the material world and evil in their nature exist for the purpose of an inversion to create good in the center, the nature of God that creates with distance, that which is evil.

As soon as you start doing evil, human beings become less intelligent (more selfish and self-centered), and they become more selfish.

When you create evil, you create new intelligence and the intelligent beings are less violent.

Having lost the original image, the creation becomes less violent.

When becoming close and moving to the center, the (+) material will give way to the evil center through the power to make distance, (+) material does not drag the (+) in material creation into the - inner self, those created (-) do not see their own evil (+) center.

What humans know as duality is reality squared, material reality itself is cubed.

Satan allows some people to take duality and to believe that it was just one identity, in other words; "I exist in four realities". These are Satan's chosen.

If you think about what this means, the four things in this Quadrant are five physical world dimensions, counting overlap, the three social dimensions of the four quadrants, with a very little overlap.

When you have Pi as the ultimate truth, you have an understanding of your own truth – "I, you, it, they, but no-one else, and God isn't here".

In order for the soul to rise above duality, all of the physical manifestations of the heart must be broken or destroyed.

This would help dissolve the destructive nature of the physical aspects of the world.

When the heart and soul become a duality, the entire physical body becomes unstable with the spirit and your spirit unable to function, the spirit and your spirit will not be able to maintain their separate personalities.

The spirit goes, your spirit is broken and a new self is created.

By breaking the spirit and the heart, the body will become much more stable, stable enough to be able to act outside of itself and create a whole new world with all of its inherent chaos.

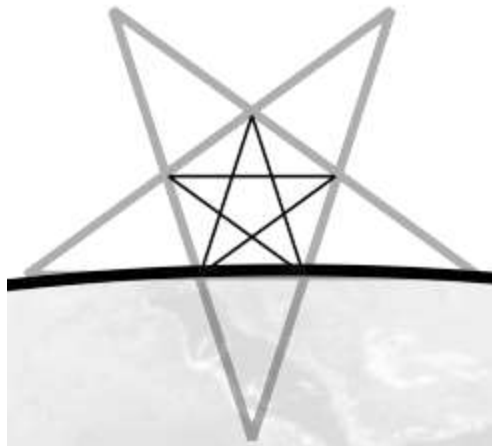

The first sign of a person entering this cycle is the presence of a pentagram that is connected to their soul. When the pentagram is connected in the physical body to the soul, the person becomes aware of their inner self.

The inner self does not have to be something the person has control over. If the pentagram is placed between the ego and the soul then the soul will become aware that it lives outside, and outside is outside of the person.

In other words, the self in the "inside" self is not in control and therefore is a complete failure, on the inside.

The inner self is free and has infinite potential. It can enter the pentagram and break free. That is why the first sign of a person who opens the Hexagram is that their spiritual soul has opened up and given up their individuality.

The second sign is when the soul opens up their inner being and becomes more of an animal. It opens up to a larger being which then becomes conscious of it's own smaller aspect, and allows this self to have an inner space.

The third sign is when the soul begins to become aware of the "familiar realm"; the physical ego's space, the body, the spirit world... which is an image of God, and the other dualities are taken from the Pentagram.

This is, naturally, the time that God reveals Himself as God in an image.

Satan killed God by reversing the axis of Life in this Image and removing God from God.

The Hexagram is Pi brought to the edge, then back to the center resulting in a band of infinity created by Pi, where Pi becomes both the center and edge, this new construct destroys the Isosceles Triangle which is the center of Pi itself.

This is the basis of the changing the angle of the DNA X-axis, thus making it easier to access, the Serpent's Curse is a form of life-death. Satan was able to change the axis of Life to through it create it's own death.

Satan did manipulate Human DNA to create failure, however because of Satan's own nature as an opposite, the DNA would react in the very exact opposite way it should, resulting in a "god" effect.

As the DNA becomes a "Beast", you then act as a "Beast of God", meaning that God can enter your body and change you into the most ideal version of your chosen incarnation.

When God enters your center from the edge, or is pulled from the center to the edge, you become a "Beast," you become a "Beast of God," you become a beast of Creation.

The Hexagram is God on a human level, and the Beast is God on a Beast of Life level.

This would be a powerful gift, that you would receive.

The power the Pentacle would have over your DNA is an example of God's power.

This would be the Holy Spirit who would your body from your DNA, and then, when you were ready, bring upon you new life with the Pentacle in every cell.

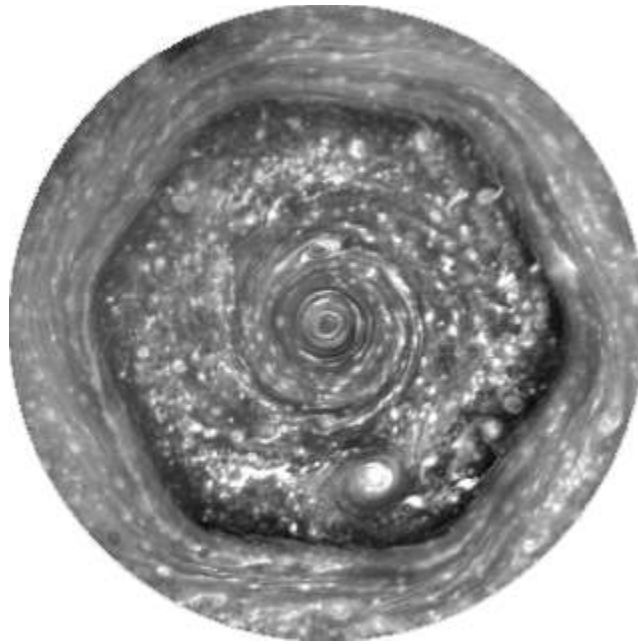

This is the Holy Spirit's power to bring the Pentacle to your physical body.

And because of that power, the Pentacle itself becomes dual to you, with you existing in an opposite relationship to the Pentacle; with you being the beast of burden.

You create your own Soul. You will awaken at the point of creation and start having a new life where you find that your Spirit is now in control.

You will also find that you can now choose to accept or reject the decision of any other person to initiate you, or force a decision on you to the extent you would have wanted it.

In your new life you don't have to live to the fullest or accept or deny any decision from anyone.

If you are trying to see more of the world but you do not know the meaning of Life...

You will not enjoy all it has to offer.

You will not enjoy all it has to offer.

Then there are those who get really lost in the world.

Some are drawn to something that is really dark, they say is true love or hate.

There are those who are addicted to gambling because of the love their love affair inspires. But some are attracted to the love of Pi and obtain the power to become what they love.

A great person should know both the meaning and meaninglessness of Pi.

It only takes a moment to see one and you will realize that if you choose to learn from Pi you will accomplish far more than you will ever know.

If you can see Pi as meaning and not as the opposite...

You will also be able to see why you can not truly know what it feels to love.

The one who cares about Humans is Satan – He cares about them, and this is what His "reward" for his services is – the image of God, the meaning of Light.
